

Mount Auburn Hospital, a Harvard Medical School teaching hospital serving the Cambridge, Massachusetts area, is seeking an outstanding leader, clinician, and teacher for the position of Chair of the Department of Psychiatry. Leading a Department of more than 40 professionals including an exceptionally talented faculty of physicians, psychiatric social workers, mental health clinicians and counselors, the Chair oversees medical student teaching programs at Mount Auburn. The Chair oversees clinical services that include a 15 bed inpatient geriatric psychiatry unit, a consult liaison and emergency department service, and an active outpatient psychiatry practice. Department members practice at the Hospital as well as in outpatient offices throughout the Hospital's service area seeing more than 40,000 patients annually. The Department is well known for its deep commitment to the practice of psychiatry within an acute care hospital setting that fosters growth and support between psychiatry and primary care and specialty practices. The Department closely collaborates with the Division of Geriatrics and a spectrum of senior care services offered at Mount Auburn. The Department is distinguished by specialty programs in alcohol and addictions as well as geriatric psychiatry.

Board certification in psychiatry is required and fellowship training in a psychiatric or related sub-specialty is highly desired. The successful candidate should have an exceptional record of professional success as a clinician and teacher and have proven skills as a leader and the ability to sustain and grow a culture of collaboration, teamwork, and achievement. The successful candidate must qualify for a faculty appointment at Harvard Medical School at the Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor level. Qualified candidates are encouraged to apply and all inquiries and applications will be held in the strictest confidence.
