

COLDWELL BANKER

REAL ESTATE ADVANTAGE

REAL ESTATE EDUCATION AND SERVICES

SUPPORT FOR HARVARD UNIVERSITY RETIREES

As a retiree of Harvard University, you are eligible for the Coldwell Banker® Real Estate Advantage Program. If you are planning to sell your home and/or purchase a home in the short or long term, the program can support you with a variety of resources.

Personalized Housing Guidance – Help navigating the competitive real estate market and placement with an experienced buyer and/or seller agent from a national broker network. Access to a variety of resources and services to help you prepare your home for sale to ensure the best price and terms and evaluate market conditions in your target home search areas.

Office Hours – Sign-up for a one-on-one with program representative Susan Keller. Learn what the program has to offer and tips to get started.

Education – Enjoy free online sessions covering a broad range of topics in our real estate education Webinar Series. For your convenience we offer 30- and 60-minute live sessions.

Cash Bonus* – Receive a cash bonus when buying or selling a home with a real estate agent introduced through the Real Estate Advantage Program.

We encourage signing up for the program in order to take advantage of our webinar series and start the process of your home sale preparation and home search with excellent real estate agents.

888.393.0699 | RealEstateAdvantageProgram.com

*Terms and conditions apply. Anywhere Leads Inc. which is an affiliate of Coldwell Banker Realty, provides this service to members of the Harvard University community. The service offered is available to Harvard University faculty, employees, retirees, students, and alumni. Harvard University and Harvard University Housing do not review or endorse any content and are not responsible for this site or the services provided by Anywhere Leads Inc. or Coldwell Banker Realty.