Brigham and Women’s Hospital is seeking an academic Stroke Neurologist. The candidate will have the opportunity to pursue academic interests in research and training of residents, fellows, and medical students. Hospital appointment as Associate Neurologist and academic title of Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be conferred as commensurate with experience and scholarship in the field. Candidates should possess a Massachusetts license to practice medicine, be fellowship trained in Stroke/Vascular Neurology and be board-eligible or certified in Neurology and Vascular Neurology. The ideal candidate should have a strong record as a clinician and possess a passionate commitment to patient care, academics, and teaching.

Additional conditions of employment are provided via this link: https://www.massgeneralbrigham.org/Employment-Conditions

Interested and qualified candidates should email a cover letter and curriculum vitae to:

Christopher Anderson, MD, MMSc
Chief, Division of Stroke and Cerebrovascular Diseases
Department of Neurology, Brigham and Women’s Hospital
canderson@bwh.harvard.edu

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.