MIXED INTENSIVE CARE UNIT CO-DIRECTOR
EXPERTISE IN PULMONARY AND CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE

Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine at Brigham and Women’s Hospital (BWH) is seeking a physician to serve as Co-Director of a new BWH Mixed Medical and Surgical ICU and as a clinical provider in the BWH Lung Center.

This provider must possess an M.D. and will work principally clinically in the Mixed ICU and will also be expected to have a modest presence in the ambulatory pulmonary medicine practice. In the Mixed ICU, he/she will work collaboratively with a Co-Director from the Department of Surgery, and they will be accountable for 24-hour operational management of the Mixed ICU, implementation of training and ongoing educational activities, and evaluation of staff in the unit. The Co-Directors will work together to provide important leadership in ICU operations. Activities include support of clinical care, oversight of an integrated educational curriculum for advanced practice practitioners on the unit, development of Medical-Surgical ICU policies and procedures, and the performance of quality assessment studies. Participation in ongoing clinical research within the Division is also available. The academic appointment will be at the Instructor or Assistant Professor level at Harvard Medical School and determined by the applicant’s credentials. Compensation will be commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Please send letter of interest and curriculum vitae to: Bruce D. Levy, M.D., Chief, Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine, Brigham and Women’s Hospital, 75 Francis Street, Boston, MA 02115; blevy@bwh.harvard.edu; 617-525-5407.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and minority candidates are particularly encouraged to apply.