CARDIAC INTENSIVE CARE TEAM
STAFF PHYSICIANS

The Division of Cardiovascular Critical Care in the Department of Cardiology at Boston Children’s Hospital is actively recruiting faculty physicians to join our well established and world-renowned cardiac intensive care team. Candidates must be Board Certified or Eligible in Pediatric Cardiology or Pediatric Critical Care Medicine with additional advanced training in Cardiac Intensive Care. Candidates should possess strong clinical, teaching, and leadership skills with a strong academic potential. Candidates must be eligible for appointment at the level of Instructor or Assistant Professor at Harvard Medical School.

Our 31-bed, state-of-the-art Cardiac Intensive Care Unit (CICU) at Boston Children’s Hospital is one of the largest CICUs managing children with congenital and acquired heart disease in the United States. Over 1500 newborns, infants, children, and adults with a wide range of congenital and acquired pediatric heart diseases are admitted each year. Available therapies include all forms of pharmacologic support, mechanical ventilation, mechanical circulatory support (ECMO and VAD) and renal replacement therapies. Our referral base includes regional, national, and international patients. A new clinical tower, under construction and opening in June 2022, will further expand the Heart Center capacity to 48 CICU beds.

Full-time critical care physicians will work closely with cardiovascular surgeons, cardiologists, anesthesiologists, and nurses in a collaborative practice within the Cardiovascular Program. Resources for academic development and conducting clinical, basic science, and translational research are readily available through the Department of Cardiology. Academic advancement through research and educational activities is strongly encouraged and supported.

Please submit direct inquiries and curriculum vitae to the CICU Faculty Search Committee: Joshua W Salvin, MD MPH, Division of Cardiovascular Critical Care, Boston Children’s Hospital, 300 Longwood Avenue MS 3215, Boston, MA 02115. Phone: (617) 355 4023; Email: CICU@childrens.harvard.edu
