BRIGHAM AND WOMEN’S HOSPITAL

Obstetrician / Gynecologist

The Gretchen S. and Edward A. Fish Center for Women’s Health (Fish Center) at Brigham and Women’s Hospital seeks a Board-Certified or Board-Eligible Obstetrician / Gynecologist to join our hospital-based gynecology practice as an Attending Physician. The Fish Center is a multi-specialty women’s health practice located at Brigham and Women’s Health Care Center in Chestnut Hill, MA. The BWH OB/Gyn Department has repeatedly been named by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top hospitals in the nation for Gynecology.

The candidate will report to the Division Director of Women’s Health, Department of OB/Gyn, and should possess an exceptional work ethic, a spirit of inclusivity and established expertise in gynecology. A commitment to interdisciplinary team care of patients is required. Strong ambulatory and surgical gynecologic skills necessary. Teaching of residents and medical students is expected. Call is shared with several other gynecology only providers. Two weeks a year of attending for the resident gynecology service is also required.

Academic rank as Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience, training, and achievements. Competitive salary and full benefits offered. Applicants seeking clinical effort should currently hold or be able to obtain all necessary licensure and certifications prior to start date.

Please send inquiries or your curriculum vitae and a letter of interest to Kathleen E. Kehoe, MS: kekehoe@partners.org

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.