

Beth Israel Lahey Health

Mount Auburn Hospital

Geriatrician at Mount Auburn Hospital –Cambridge, MA

Mount Auburn Hospital, a teaching hospital of Harvard Medical School and member of the Beth Israel Lahey Health network serving the greater Cambridge, Massachusetts area is seeking a Board Certified/Eligible Geriatrician to join the Quimby Center for Geriatric Care.

The Quimby Center is a vibrant Geriatrics practice comprised of physicians and nurse practitioners who provide evidence-based compassionate care across the continuum. The group practices in multiple settings including: office-based primary care for older adults; inpatient and outpatient consultative care; co-management on a Geropsychiatric unit; home visits through our House Calls program, and an extensive network of assisted living facilities and skilled nursing facilities. Additionally, The Quimby Center runs the Center for Memory Evaluation and Support, which provides multi-disciplinary memory consultative services. As a Harvard teaching program, the practice teaches Geriatrics to Mount Auburn Hospital based Internal Medicine residents as well as fellows in Geriatrics from the Combined Harvard Geriatrics Fellowship program.

Candidates will enjoy a competitive compensation and benefits package. The physician selected for this role will be eligible for an instructor or assistant professor appointment at Harvard Medical School, commensurate with experience and qualifications.
