

CHAIR, DEPARTMENT OF PATHOLOGY
Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center

The Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center (BIDMC) is seeking applications and nominations for an academic pathologist to serve as Chair of the Department of Pathology. The Department of Pathology at BIDMC is consistently ranked among the top pathology departments in the US, in terms of its research portfolio, educational programs and strong clinical efforts in all areas of the discipline. BIDMC is a Harvard teaching hospital, and serves as the flagship academic medical center for Beth Israel Lahey Health system.

Applicants should have a proven record of significant academic accomplishment, and demonstrate the leadership skills to nurture and enhance the research, teaching and clinical portfolios of an already superb Department of Pathology. This individual will have far-reaching leadership responsibilities. Therefore, they must have exemplary administrative, mentoring and communication acumen, not only to lead a large and complex department, but also to engage with institutional, departmental, and divisional leaders, the Harvard community, as well as the regional, national and international pathology communities.

An academic appointment as Professor of Pathology at Harvard Medical School (HMS) will be commensurate with experience, training and achievements in addition to teaching activities.

Prospective applicants should submit a letter of interest and curriculum vitae addressed to:

Committee Chair:
Elliot L. Chaikof, MD, PhD
Chair, Department of Surgery, BIDMC
Johnson and Johnson Professor of Surgery, HMS
110 Francis St., Suite 9F, Boston, MA 02215
Email to ehunter@bidmc.harvard.edu

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.

