The chair of the Department of Imaging and the Department of Radiology at Brigham and Women’s Hospital are seeking an academic leader to serve as the chair of the Department of Imaging at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and be a member of the Department of Radiology at Brigham and Women’s Hospital. The successful candidate will also hold an appointment at the rank of Professor/Associate Professor of Radiology at Harvard Medical School commensurate with experience.

This individual will be responsible for the research and educational activities of the department as well as clinical activities with the Deputy Chair of the Brigham and Women’s Hospital. The Chair will collaborate with other Department Leaders at Mass General Brigham, Harvard Medical School, Boston Children’s Hospital, Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, and other affiliated institutions. A candidate with a focus on innovative molecular imaging will receive strong consideration.

The candidate should have a demonstrated record as a mentor and as a teacher, national recognition for research accomplishments, and possess exceptional leadership, managerial and collaborative skills. Ideally, this individual would be a proven leader with an international reputation in radiology who can lead a complex and successful department to even higher levels of excellence.

Interested candidates are requested to submit a current Curriculum Vitae and cover letter to the email address below for consideration.

Committee Chair
Bruce E. Johnson, M.D., Professor, Department of Medical Oncology, Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Department of Medicine, Brigham and Women’s Hospital
ImagingCHAIR@dfci.harvard.edu

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.