The Division of Rheumatology, Immunology and Allergy
Brigham and Women’s Hospital

The Division of Rheumatology, Immunology and Allergy at Brigham and Women’s Hospital seeks a full time, board certified rheumatologist for patient care and teaching. Candidates with a special interest in vasculitis are preferred.

Candidates should be willing to practice both at a nearby satellite location and onsite. The successful candidate will also engage in teaching medical students and fellows in the clinic and inpatient settings.

Academic rank as Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience and qualifications.
