Department of Medicine
Massachusetts General Hospital

The Massachusetts General Hospital Department of Medicine is seeking an Attending Physician, Board Certified in Hospice and Palliative Medicine or Geriatrics, and an academic leader.

Areas of interest include Palliative Care, Hospice, Geriatrics, dementia, frailty, quality of life, and medical decision making.

The candidate should have an established clinical training record in Hospice and Palliative Medicine or Geriatric Medicine, and interest in working as a clinician educator both in an ambulatory and inpatient environment.

Appointment as an Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience, training and achievements in addition to teaching activities. Suitable candidates will have an MD or an MD-PhD, and Board Certification in Hospice and Palliative Medicine or in Geriatric Medicine.

Although several years of experience would be advantageous, less experienced candidates with exceptional promise will also be considered.

Interested candidates should send a personal statement with research interest, three potential referees and Curriculum Vitae to Debjani Banerji, Administrative Director of Division at dbanerji@mgh.harvard.edu.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.
