

Primary Care Physician Ad Text

07.30.20

Mount Auburn Hospital (MAH) is a Harvard Medical School teaching hospital dedicated to delivering health care services in a personable, convenient and compassionate manner to the residents of Cambridge, Massachusetts and its surrounding communities.

MAH is part of Beth Israel Lahey Health (BILH), a new health care system that brings together academic medical centers and teaching, community, and specialty hospitals. BILH's mission is to expand access to great care and advance the science and practice of medicine through groundbreaking research and education.

We are currently recruiting Primary Care Physicians for several of our locations. Responsibilities include clinical care, practice-based quality improvement, and precepting internal medicine residents. The selected physician will receive a faculty appointment as an Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Mount Auburn Hospital is an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, or any other characteristic protected by law. We strongly encourage women and minorities to apply.

Applicants may submit a CV and letter of interest or direct questions to Monica King at monica.king@mah.org