Faculty Position
Academic Cardiac Interventionalist
Department of Medicine
Massachusetts General Hospital

The Cardiology Division of Massachusetts General Hospital is actively recruiting a faculty member to join the Knight Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory and the Interventional Cardiology Associates. The candidate must be board-certified in cardiovascular disease and board-certified or board-eligible in interventional cardiology. The applicant is expected to demonstrate expertise in a broad variety of cardiac and complex coronary interventional procedures. Subspecialty vascular and/or structural interventional expertise is not mandatory. Experience in clinical, translational, or basic research focused in interventional cardiology is desirable.

The candidate will be expected to contribute to the clinical, educational, research, and administrative functions of the Cardiology Division. An Academic Appointment at Harvard Medical School may be at the Instructor, Assistant Professor, or Associate Professor Rank and will be commensurate with experience, training and achievements in addition to teaching activities. Salary and benefits will be commensurate with the candidate's experience and qualifications.

Interested candidates should send a personal statement with research interest, three potential referees and Curriculum Vitae to MGHCardiologySearch@partners.org, please add in subject line of: Academic Cardiac Interventionalist
