

ACADEMIC GASTROENTEROLOGIST & HEPATOLOGIST –

Brigham and Women's Hospital, the Department of Medicine and the Division of Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Endoscopy seek a board-certified Academic Gastroenterologist with a strong background in both general hepatology and liver transplantation, including training at an ACGME-accredited Transplant Hepatology Fellowship program.

The applicant should have a demonstrated commitment to patient care, medical education, and clinical research. The successful candidate will participate in teaching students, house staff, and fellows in both the inpatient and ambulatory setting. Academic rank at Harvard Medical School (Instructor or Assistant Professor) and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Please send a letter of interest, CV, and the names and the addresses of three references to: Stephen D. Zucker, M.D., Director of Hepatology, Division of Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Endoscopy, Brigham and Women's Hospital, 75 Francis Street, Boston, MA 02115-6195, or e-mail to: szucker@bwh.harvard.edu and kdriscoll@bwh.harvard.edu.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, pregnancy or pregnancy-related condition, or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and members of underrepresented minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.
