

Materials Required for Reappointment as Professor, Part-time
CHECKLIST

Please electronically submit the following materials to the Office for Faculty Affairs at facppt@hms.harvard.edu. Please allow for sufficient time in gathering materials so that all materials are complete prior to the yearly September deadline for submission.

- Nominating letter from the department head, which includes the following:
 - Candidate's current role(s) and contribution(s) to the department and to the field
 - Any role(s) at for-profit companies including title(s) and level of effort, if applicable
 - Candidate's teaching and mentoring contributions, including clear documentation that minimum teaching hours are met (≥ 50 hours per year)
 - Faculty of Medicine Integrity and Professionalism statement:

“Dr. X is a faculty member in good standing with an appropriate hospital appointment and associated credentialing (for clinical faculty). To the best of my knowledge, other than as may be indicated in this letter, Dr. X has not been sanctioned or disciplined by a hospital, state licensing board, the NIH, the FDA, or any other legal, regulatory, or institutional authority. There are no current investigations or other concerns known to me that raise questions about his/her integrity, professionalism, competence, or the quality of his/her contributions as a faculty member of Harvard Medical School.”

- Candidate's updated CV in Faculty of Medicine format
 - Current and former titles should match records available through MARS, with current title listed as Professor of [Department], Part-time
 - Teaching responsibilities should be clearly documented
 - Industry roles should be documented, including time commitment

- At least six (6) letters in support of the reappointment
 - All letters must come from individuals at the rank of full Professor or equivalent (e.g., Senior Scientist at the NIH)
 - Please avoid using Emeritus/Emerita or Adjunct Professors as letter writers
 - Three (3) letters from faculty within the Harvard system, addressing the candidate's current contributions to the department
 - At least one letter from the candidate's home department
 - At least one letter from outside the candidate's home department

- Three (3) letters must come from faculty outside the Harvard system, discussing the candidate's continuing national reputation
 - Letters may come from former or current collaborators
 - No more than one letter per outside institution
 - No more than one letter may come from a faculty member with a modified title (e.g., Clinical Professor or Research Professor)
