

Professor of Clinical X Statement of Impact GUIDE

Please provide a 1-page description of the contributions that have resulted in a national, and in many cases international, impact in and reputation for advancing the practice of medicine; your clinical expertise and excellence are expected to be integral to these contributions. The Statement of Impact should complement the annotated 10-best contributions in that this document should speak to your impact and reputation, while the 10-best is a list of work products that manifest your impact and reputation.

Summarize your impact within one of the following primary domains of contribution, relying upon the Promotion Profile for Professor of Clinical X for a comprehensive list of indicators. For candidates who have contributions in two or more domains, it is ordinarily preferred that you focus your statement of impact in one domain and identify one or more Significant Supporting Activities to characterize other domains of impact.

- Knowledge synthesis or novel application of clinical knowledge to formulate and advance best practices in medicine or care delivery and their uptake
- Educational leadership and generativity in medical education (undergraduate, post-graduate, faculty development, and/or continuing professional education)
- Administrative leadership in academic medicine
- Transformative service and leadership that advances health equity and the quality of health and health delivery in minoritized, socially marginalized, or other underserved communities.

Significant Supporting Activity (optional) – if applicable, describe your accomplishments in other domains as Significant Supporting Activities that are additive to (but not duplicative of) the primary domain of contribution. These SSAs may be in:

- Administration and Institutional Service
- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Education of Patients and Service to the Community
