Instructor or Assistant/Associate Professor of Pediatrics (Division of Pediatric Hospital Medicine)

Massachusetts General Hospital

The Division of Pediatric Hospital Medicine in the Department of Pediatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) and Mass General for Children (MGfC) invites application for full-time appointment as an Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor to join a multidisciplinary team of clinicians.

The full-time faculty hospitalist position will provide clinical care for pediatric and young adult patients. Clinical responsibility includes combination of daytime, nighttime, and weekend coverage. The Pediatric Hospitalist team has close medical collaborations with MGfC subspecialty teams and ensures the most advanced approach to patient care. Clinical services at Mass General are supported by MGH pediatric subspecialties, including pediatric cardiology, pulmonary, endocrinology and gastroenterology.

This position is currently available and will remain open until filled.

Requirements include an MD or equivalent degree, eligibility for medical licensure in the State of Massachusetts, certification (or eligibility for certification) by the American Board of Pediatric Medicine, and PALS certification.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law.

Mass General Hospital is a founding member of the Mass General Brigham Integrated Health Care System and is located in Massachusetts and has been consistently ranked by U.S. News and World Report as one the Nation's top 5 Hospital. Excellent compensation and comprehensive benefits are provided.

Interested candidates should send a letter of interest and CV to Division Chiefs Dr. Ann Kao and Dr. Kerstin Zanger at: kzanger@partners.org; akao@partners.org