

The Department of Surgery at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center is recruiting a board certified/board eligible multi-organ abdominal transplant surgeon for a full-time faculty position in the Division of Transplantation. The candidate should have completed training in general surgery and an ASTS-approved transplant fellowship. Candidates must have experience in liver, kidney and pancreas transplantation, as well as multi-organ donor experience. Candidates must have a demonstrated track record of clinical excellence and scholarly activities, with achievements in basic or clinical research. Appointment as an Instructor, Assistant or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience, training and achievements in addition to teaching activities.

Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, a 743-bed hospital and Level 1 Trauma Center, is a founding member of Beth Israel Lahey Health, a health care system that brings together academic medical centers and teaching hospitals, community and specialty hospitals, more than 4,000 physicians and 35,000 employees in a shared mission to expand access to great care and advance the science and practice of medicine through groundbreaking research and education.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and underrepresented minorities are particularly encouraged to apply. Applications are made online at <https://hmfp.wd5.myworkdayjobs.com/HMFP>

For more information, contact [redacted]