

Primary Care Physician – Mount Auburn Hospital

Beth Israel Lahey Health Primary Care, associated with Mount Auburn Hospital (MAH), a Harvard Medical School teaching hospital in Cambridge, Massachusetts, is seeking an experienced Internal Medicine or Family Practice primary care physician. MAH is dedicated to delivering health care services in a personable, convenient and compassionate manner to the residents of Cambridge, Massachusetts and its surrounding communities. The ideal candidate is an accomplished and experienced clinician educator who is respected for his/her clinical and educational skills. Applicants ideally have prior experience with residency training in a primary care outpatient setting.

Responsibilities include clinical primary care, practice-based quality improvement, with potential opportunities to precept internal medicine residents and/or medical students in an ambulatory clinic environment. The selected physician will receive a faculty appointment as a Lecturer, Instructor, Assistant Professor or Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School, commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Mount Auburn Hospital is a member of Beth Israel Lahey Health (BILH), a health care system that brings together academic medical centers and teaching, community, and specialty hospitals. BILH's mission is to expand access to great care and advance the science and practice of medicine through groundbreaking research and education.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, or any other characteristic protected by law.
