

Instructor or Assistant/Associate Professor of Pediatrics (Division of Pediatric Critical Care Medicine) Massachusetts General Hospital

The Division of Pediatric Critical Care Medicine in the Department of Pediatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) and Mass General for Children (MGfC) invites application for full-time clinical position in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU) with an academic appointment at Harvard Medical School at the level of Instructor, or Assistant/Associate Professor. The full-time faculty intensivist will provide multidisciplinary clinical care for critically ill infants, children and adolescent patients. Clinical responsibility will include a combination of daytime, nighttime, and weekend coverage to staff 24/7 coverage in the MGfC PICU and the Shriners Pediatric Burn Hospital PICU (adjacent to MGfC). The PICU team works in close medical collaboration with MGfC subspecialty teams to provide monitoring and life-sustaining treatments and ensures the most advanced approach to patient care. Clinical services at Mass General are supported by MGH pediatric subspecialties, including but not limited to pediatric cardiology, pulmonary, endocrinology, and gastroenterology. In addition to clinical responsibilities, active teaching/training will occur regularly to medical students, pediatric residents and fellows. The positions are currently available and will remain open until filled. Requirements include an MD or equivalent degree, eligibility for medical licensure in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, certification (or eligibility for certification) by the American Board of Pediatric Medicine, and PALS certification.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identify, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristics protected by law.

Mass General Hospital is a founding member of the Mass General Brigham Integrated Health Care System, it is in Massachusetts and has been consistently ranked by U.S. New and World Report as one of the Nation's top 5 Hospitals. Excellent compensation and comprehensive benefits are provided.
