

ACADEMIC NEUROHOSPITALIST
BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL
DEPARTMENT OF NEUROLOGY

Brigham and Women's Hospital is seeking a board-certified Neurologist as a Neuro-hospitalist. The candidate will be hired for inpatient clinical duties and is also expected to participate in quality improvement initiatives and/or teaching of residents, fellows, students, and physician assistants, and/or clinic research.

Clinical duties are divided between two locations, the main campus at the Brigham and Woman's Hospital in Boston, MA and Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital in Jamaica Plain, MA.

Academic appointment at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience, training, and achievements. The Harvard appointment carries an obligation to teach within the Harvard community a minimum of 50 hours per year. We anticipate the successful candidate will be qualified for appointment at the Instructor, Assistant Professor, or Associate Professor level. A commitment to clinical excellence and to clinical teaching is sought.

Applications from women and representatives of under-represented minority groups are welcomed and encouraged to apply.

Candidates should possess a Massachusetts license to practice medicine. Additional conditions of employment are provided via this link: <https://www.partners.org/For-Medical-Professionals/Employment-Conditions.aspx>"

Interested and qualified candidates are asked to email a cover letter and curriculum vitae to:
