

Infectious Diseases

Mount Auburn Hospital, Cambridge MA

Mount Auburn Hospital, part of the Beth Israel Lahey Health System, is a Harvard Medical School teaching hospital serving Cambridge MA area is seeking an enthusiastic and motivated clinician-educator to join our Division of Infectious Diseases. Clinical practice activities include providing inpatient and outpatient consultative services as well as support of travel medicine center. Applicants must be board certified in Infectious Diseases or eligible for certification. The Division plays a critical role in the education of medical students and residents. The chosen candidate will be eligible for a Harvard Medical School (HMS) appointment of Instructor, Assistant Professor commensurate with HMS appointment criteria and qualifications.

Mount Auburn Hospital was founded in 1886 as the first hospital in Cambridge. With 217 licensed beds in all private rooms, the hospital is accredited by The Joint Commission, a member of the American Hospital Association Council on Teaching Hospitals, and the Association of American Medical Colleges. Mount Auburn's mission is to expand access to outstanding care, and advance the science and practice of medicine through education and research. As part of Beth Israel Lahey Health, the Mount Auburn Hospital position offers an outstanding opportunity to work in a stable, vertically integrated system. BILH currently employs 35,000 individuals making it the second largest employer in Massachusetts, and consists of over 200 locations including 13 hospitals. Over 4,000 physicians are associated with BILH including 840 primary care physicians managing 1.3 million patients.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, or any other characteristic protected by law. We strongly encourage both women and minorities to apply.

To learn more about this opportunity, or to apply, please send a CV and brief letter of interest or query to Janet Waters, physician recruiter, at: jwaters2@mah.harvard.edu.