

The Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at
Spaulding Rehabilitation

Clinical

Spaulding Rehabilitation's Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation is seeking Board Eligible/Certified Physiatrists for inpatient and outpatient positions. Candidates must have excellent clinical and academic credentials, a commitment to teaching and a strong interest in developing an academic career in Physiatry. Responsibilities may include program and practice development, medical leadership, teaching, and research. Successful candidates will receive an academic appointment of instructor, assistant, or associate professor as appropriate at the Harvard Medical School Department of PM&R.

Practice opportunities exist for physicians experienced in general PM&R, spasticity, brain injury, stroke, general musculoskeletal medicine, sports medicine and/or interventional spine procedures, neuro-trauma, neurorehabilitation, and pediatrics. Additional opportunities exist for a physician to perform consults in an academic medical center and/or a long-term acute care facility.

Research

The Department is also seeking scientists with interests in Neuro-Trauma (brain injury and SCI), Stroke, Pediatric PM&R, Musculoskeletal, Spine Care/Pain Management and Outcomes research that are clinical and/or laboratory focused. The successful candidate will have outstanding departmental support, strong research infrastructure, excellent departmental colleagues, and potential for collaborative opportunities within the department and with other investigators at Harvard Medical School. MDs/DOs and/or PhDs are eligible. Successful candidates will receive an academic appointment of instructor, assistant, or associate professor as appropriate at the Harvard Medical School Department of PM&R.

All positions are based at Spaulding Rehabilitation and/or Massachusetts General Hospital, other Mass General Brigham member hospitals and outside hospitals.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, or any other characteristic protected by law.
