

Massachusetts General Hospital
Dermatopathologist

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS (USA). MGPO Dermatopathology Associates, a joint venture between The Divisions of Dermatology and Pathology Services at the Massachusetts General Hospital, a founding hospital of Mass General Brigham, and a major teaching affiliate of the Harvard Medical School, is seeking a full-time, Board-certified dermatopathologist, to join a highly qualified and experienced group of dermatopathologists. We are seeking an individual with at least 8 years of experience. The position requires excellent diagnostic skills and a desire to interact with some of the world's most venerated clinicians in dermatology and pathology.

In addition to demonstrating expertise in dermatopathology, the candidates are expected to be committed to the education of residents and fellows and develop a successful academic track record. Academic rank as Instructor or Assistant Professor will be determined and salary will be commensurate with experience and accomplishments.

Interested candidates should send a personal statement with three potential references and Curriculum Vitae to:
