

BRIGHAM AND WOMEN'S HOSPITAL

Division Director, Gynecologic Oncology (Gyn Onc)

The Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology seeks a Division Director to lead our diverse and collaborative team within Gynecologic Oncology (Gyn Onc). The Division Director is a practicing clinician who oversees all aspects of the academic, financial, administrative, and educational operations of the Division.

The candidate should possess an exceptional work ethic, established expertise in gynecologic surgery, a spirit of inclusivity and an enthusiasm for leadership.

The candidate must actively promote and integrate Diversity, Equity and Inclusion efforts across all service and care areas, with a commitment to health equity for all patients.

Working with hospital and departmental leadership, the Division Director sets the strategic vision including annual operating budget, faculty development, research agenda, and educational programs. The Division Director creates an environment where an interdisciplinary team produces and implements clinical policies, guidelines, and adheres to fiscal and regulatory standards.

The Gyn Onc Division Director must be a board-certified obstetrician-gynecologist and gynecologic oncologist with substantial experience in gynecologic cancer care, research, and teaching.

Academic rank of Assistant/Associate Professor at Harvard Medical School will be commensurate with experience, training, and achievements. A competitive salary and full benefits package are offered.
