

Vascular and Endovascular Surgeon

The Department of Surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital, Division of Vascular and Endovascular Surgery seeks a full-time, board-certified surgeon in Vascular and Endovascular Surgery for practice at Brigham and Women's Hospital and affiliated hospitals. The candidate should also be qualified to be appointed at the Instructor, Assistant, or Associate Professor level at Harvard Medical School. Salary and academic appointment will be commensurate with training and level of experience. The candidate must demonstrate professional and academic expertise in the field of vascular and endovascular surgery and be interested in teaching and working in an academic teaching hospital setting.

Brigham and Women's Hospital and the Department of Surgery are committed to ensuring our diverse community feels welcome, cared for, and valued. Candidates who have experience working with a diverse range of faculty, staff, and patients, and who can contribute to the climate of inclusivity are encouraged to identify their experiences in these areas.

We are an equal opportunity employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions or any other characteristic protected by law. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

A selection committee, headed by Marcus Semel, M.D. M.P.H., Interim Chief of Vascular and Endovascular Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital, will be reviewing all applicants. Interested candidates should submit curriculum vitae and letter of interest by email to: Gerard M. Doherty, M.D., Chair, Department of Surgery, Brigham and Women's Hospital at: surgeryfacultyaffairs@bwh.harvard.edu.
