

MGH Seeking Primary Care Physicians

The Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) Division of General Internal Medicine seeks outstanding primary care physicians and primary care physician practice leaders to join our faculty. We seek physicians of diverse backgrounds who are excited to engage in the clinical, educational, and scholarly missions of our Division at MGH and in teaching activities at Harvard Medical School. Academic rank at Harvard Medical School as Instructor, Assistant Professor, or Associate Professor, full-time and part-time will be commensurate with qualifications and experience, including relevant experience in medical education, health system leadership, research, and community service.

Candidates are expected to be board-eligible with either the American Board of Internal Medicine, the American Board of Family Medicine, the American Osteopathic Board of Internal Medicine, the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians, and where applicable, the American Board of Pediatrics.

Please send letter of interest and CV to:

Mary McNaughton-Collins, MD, MPH

Director of Faculty Recruitment and of Faculty Career and Professional Development

Division of General Internal Medicine Massachusetts General Hospital

primarycare@mgh.harvard.edu

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer, and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, gender identity, sexual orientation, pregnancy and pregnancy-related conditions, or any other characteristic protected by law.